Petersbourg, September 5, O. S.

ON the 4th Inſtant Felt Marſhal Lacy arrived here, and went directly to Court, where the Generaliſſimo immediately introduced him to the Regent, who received him moſt graciouſly. The Great Dutcheſs has ordered a Recompence of three Months Pay to all the Subaltern Officers, and the Field Officers will be gratified in a more particular Manner. This being the Princeſs Elizabeth's Name-day, it is to be celebrated here with great Magnificence, and there will be a Ball at Court. The Great Dutcheſs, according to the Cuſtom of this Country, went to the Princeſs Elizabeth's Palace Yeſterday, attended by the Guards and ſix Coaches with ſix Horſes, to wiſh her Joy, and preſented her Highneſs at the ſame time with a very fine Jewel for her Hair from the Czar, and a compleat Sett of Tea Equipage in Gold from herſelf. The Cannon were fired on this Occaſion.

Presbourg, Sept. 20. The Elector of Bavaria was expected to be on the 18th at Melk, with about 15000 of his own Troops, and about 4000 French. The Empreſs Amelia is gone from Vienna to a Convent at Nieuberg upon the Danube; and the Empreſs Mother will retire to Gratz the latter End of this Week.

Breſlau, Sept. 23. The Pruſſian and Auſtrian Armies continue quiet in their reſpective Camps near Neiſs, except the Huſſars of both, which go out in Parties. A large Detachment of the Auſtrian Huſſars attacked two Days ſucceſſively 400 Pruſſians who had taken Poſſeſſion of a ſmall Town called Jurgas near the Oder, during which the Pruſſians had about 30 Men killed and wounded; but the Loſs of the Auſtrians is not known.

Presbourg, Sept. 27, N. S. The Bavarians have ſeized upon Kemar in Upper Auſtria, the Produce whereof brings in a conſiderable Revenue to her Hungarian Majeſty. One Corps of the Bavarian Troops is already paſſed into Bohemia; another is expected to follow immediately, ſo that any Attempt upon Vienna is at preſent not expected.

Hague, Sept. 29. The Advices received here from the Lower Rhine mention, that M. Maillebois's Army paſſed that River on the 23d and 24th Inſtant at Keyzerſwaert.

Lintzbourg, Oct. 1, N. S. His Majeſty has been pleaſed to grant unto Edward Weſton, Eſq; the Office of Writer of the London Gazette during his Life, the ſame having become void by the Death of Samuel Buckley, Eſq;

Whitehall, September 29.

Captain Ambroſe, Commander of his Majeſty's Ship the Rupert, writes Word, that as he was cruizing off Cape Machiacaca, on the 18th Inſtant in the Evening, he ſaw a Sail from the Maſthead to Windward, which he chaſed all that Night and the next Day, and about Eleven at Night came up with her, and after ſome Reſiſtance, (the Rupert not being able to open her lower Tier of Guns, by Reaſon of there running a great Sea) took her. She is the largeſt Privateer belonging to St. Sebaſtian, called the Duke de Vendome, of 26 Carriage Guns, and 202 Men, the Captain is one Don Martin de Areneder, a French Man, and moſt of her Crew of Foreign Nations; there were 19 Engliſh, Scotch, and Iriſh on board, who ſay, they were taken out of Priſon, and forced by the Intendant to proceed on the Cruize. The Captain of the Prize and 29 Men were killed, and 20 ſo wounded that few of them can recover. The Rupert had but one Man killed, another his Hand ſhot off, and three ſlightly wounded. The Prize is a new Ship from the Stocks, of the Dimenſions of our 20 Gun Frigates, had been but three Days out of Port, and was compleatly fitted with a great Quantity of Small-Arms, Cutlaſſes, and Pole-Axes,
